

Chilly Easter Finds Churches Crowded

Salemites, in all their Easter finery, braved chilly weather to attend services Sunday. All churches reported record throngs of worshippers in attendance.

The News photographer was on hand to record this scene (top picture) when family groups emerged from St. Paul's Catholic Church following Low Mass conducted by the Rev. J. R. Gaffney.

Ohio Observes 'White Easter'

Spring Finery Hid By Winter Garb

By The Associated Press

Widespread snow squalls gave many parts of Ohio a white Easter this first time in five years that the holiday fell so early in the spring.

Holiday travel, especially toward evening, became extremely hazardous on slippery roads.

Weather Here More Typical of Christmas

Salem residents awoke this morning to find the weather more typical of Christmas than the day after Easter.

About an inch of snow fell during the night, and the mercury hovered in the lower 20's. The abnormal weather was caused by a rapidly moving low pressure system barreling in from the West.

The cold is expected to continue in the area, with temperatures for the next five days averaging 7 to 10 degrees below normal. The normal high for the date is 50-52 and the normal low, 30-35.

The weatherman says temperatures will begin to moderate the last part of the week.

Much Easter fashion finery had to be hidden with overcoats as temperatures held in the 20s and 30s.

Northern Ohio, from Toledo to Cleveland, had two inches of snow generally, more locally, by late Sunday night.

More was falling, especially

West Point Boy Smothers Fire In Friend's Clothing

WEST POINT—Van Passage, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Passage, is credited with possibly saving the life of his playmate, Michael S. Wolski, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wolski, after the younger boy's clothing caught fire Saturday afternoon.

The boys were playing in the Wolski yard when they decided to burn a trash pile. Unable to get a strong blaze going, they threw either kerosene or gasoline on the fire which flared up and ignited Michael's clothing. The older youth got some burlap sacks out of a shed and wrapped them about Michael, putting out the flames.

The latter was admitted to Salem City Hospital where he is in fairly good condition with second and third degree burns of his left leg. His father was recently transferred from Salem City Hospital to St. Elizabeth Hospital in Youngstown where he is recovering from surgery.

Stanley T. Dallies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Dallies of 265 South St., died at Salem City Hospital Sunday at 7:45 a.m., 16 hours after he was struck.

The death marked the first traffic fatality in the city since an elderly woman pedestrian was run over by a car Dec. 6, 1957. The boy's death is the seventh traffic fatality in Columbiana County in 1964's first quarter. His demise was separated only 11 days from the traffic death of William Dishong of Columbiana.

Dr. William A. Koloszi, county coroner, ruled the death accidental and a traffic fatality. Death was due to a crushed chest, internal injuries and shock.

Police report the boy, a student at Capt. Taggart Elementary School, was on his way to the spring opening of the Dairy Mill on W. Main St. where children were given free ice cream cones.

Crossing Main St. from north to south, the youth darted into the path of westbound car driven by Mrs. Sarah J. Herbersman, 33, of Box 134, New Waterford.

Mrs. Robert Ellyson of Rea Drive is awaiting word on the safety of relatives living in Anchorage, Alaska, which was nearly destroyed by earthquakes Friday.

The death toll from Friday evening's record quake was approximately 70, an amazingly low figure, but the grim realization of economic ruin was only beginning to sink in upon a stunned population.

Gov. William A. Egan revised his estimate of property damage upward to a conservative $350 million. Other unofficial estimates were higher.

The governor raised his estimate after visiting his home town of Valdez, which had 32 dead and suffered heavy destruction.

Edward A. McDermott, President Johnson's personal representative on the scene, was flying back to Washington today to recommend special relief legislation.

The President already has declared the 49th state a major disaster area. McDermott said it was obvious the full disaster relief program permitted under present law would not be enough.

At best, he said, it would take two to four months to get Alaskan economy into any workable shape.

Alaska Senators Ernest Gruening and E. L. (Bob) Bartlett, also Washington bound, indicated they would press for an immediate aid grant in Congress.

Typically, Seward, 60 miles south of Anchorage, had only two known dead, but its business was 95 per cent destroyed and few of its men still had jobs.

The Alaskan Railroad, vital route from Seward to the interior, was a jumble of wrecked cars and twisted rails. A mile-long waterfront area collapsed into the sea.

All along the ring of the Gulf of Alaska where the great quake struck in fury at 5:36 p.m. Friday it was a similar story of low casualties but mighty ruin.

the state with an area population of 100,000, counted 12 dead. Its business district and its best residential sections were tottering heaps of awesome wreckage.

Kodiak Island enumerated 12 dead. Its fishing fleet and canning plants were wrecked.

One hundred and five miles southeast of Anchorage, reports from the small town of Valdez — pronounced "Valdeez" — said many of the 32 dead were on a dock that collapsed when hit by a huge sea wave.

The sea waves also worked terrible and deadly destruction thousands of miles away, killing at least 16 persons in California and Oregon. Worst of these sufferers was Crescent City, Calif., more than 2,000 miles from the quake's epicenter. There 11 persons died and

Asks Name Be Taken Off Ohio Senate Ballot

Former Astronaut Hurt In Bathroom Fail Last Month

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Former astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., withdrew today from the Ohio U.S. Senate campaign because of injuries from a bathroom fall last month.

"No man has a right to ask for a seat in either branch of the Congress merely because of a specific event such as orbiting the earth in a space craft," Glenn told newsmen after one of his physicians said participation in the campaign would be detrimental to his health and recovery.

His statement was made at the Air Force hospital where he was brought March 6 to recover from inner ear damage.

Glenn's announcement ended weeks of speculation on how the injury would affect the future of the spaceman turned politician.

The ear injury impaired Glenn's sense of balance and curtailed his plans to retire from the Marine Corps March 1 to enter the Ohio Senate race.

Glenn said he sent a telegram to Ohio Secretary of State Ted Brown requesting that his name be taken off the Democratic ballot.

The Marine Corps lieutenant colonel said he might return to his home near the National Aeronautics Space Administration center at Houston within a week or so.

As to his future plans, Glenn said: "Perhaps there will be other opportunities for service to our country or be a later time when I can conduct the type of campaign I think every candidate should conduct."

Rights Bill Backers Open All-Out Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey leads off with a challenge today as Senate backers of the civil rights bill launch an all-out campaign aimed at winning passage of the controversial measure.

The Senate battle is expected to last for weeks. Although today is the first day the bill is before the Senate, opponents have been talking against it for almost a month.

In his prepared Senate speech today, Humphrey said bipartisan backers of the civil rights bill are anxious for "full and fair debate."

The Minnesotan, assistant Democratic leader and floor manager for the bill, said "We are also willing to come to a decision on each title of the bill and on the bill itself."

"We are willing to let a majority of the Senate say 'yea' or 'nay' on voting rights, public accommodations, school desegregation, equal employment opportunity and the other provisions of this legislation," he

Safe-Crackers Obtain $500 At Automobile Club Office

Yeggs netted approximately $500 in cash when they broke into the Columbiana County Motor Club (AAA) office and "cracked" the safe sometime early this morning.

Police Chief Martin Lutsch Jr. estimated the time about 1 or 2 a.m. since there were no footprints in the snow. Club Manager A. P. Morris said he was at his office at about 4 p.m. Sunday and nothing was disturbed at that time.

Entrance to the building at the Village Green corner of E. State St. and Lincoln Ave. was gained through a small window, apparently left unlocked, on the south side of the building. The window opens into Morris' office and from there the intruders went to the outer office. The window is visible from the street.

Self-contained power tools were believed used in "peeling" open the large upright safe. A 300-pound money safe, which held the cash, was "tack-welded" inside the larger safe and was torn loose and taken away.

The outside steel covering of the upright safe was torn loose and the tumbler and locking mechanism pounded through the inside of the safe.

Police statements that the burglars wore gloves were evidenced by several prints found on the outside of the safe.

Nothing was taken in the break-in except the cash. Morris related after employees had made a number check of license plates and auto titles. Travelers checks were also in the safe but were not disturbed.

Leave Via Rear Door

The intruders left through a back door which, ironically, was forced open when they could have lifted a steel pin used in the hasp. Police rule out the possibility that entrance was gained there since there were no force marks on the outside of the door.

Morris set the loss at "about $500," saying that most of the receipts taken in from license

Missing Dover Man Found Slain, Buried

DOVER, Ohio (P)—Milton Swonger, missing since Saturday, was found Sunday night beaten to death and buried in a shallow grave near his blood-spattered truck.

Tuscarawas County Prosecutor Phillip Doughten said Swonger was killed by a blunt instrument blow to the head.

Swonger was reported missing Saturday night by his father-in-law, Earl Steiner. The pickup truck was found late Sunday in a barn just outside the north city limits, a few hundred yards from Swonger's home.

Steiner said a lot of blood was on the seat of the truck.

He said Swonger had dropped his wife at the Steiner farm Friday and was to pick her up that night but failed to appear.

Swonger's wife, Nancy, began asking neighbors Sunday if they had seen her husband. A young boy told her the truck was in the barn, Steiner said.

426 Farmers Sign Up In Grain Program

A total of 426 farmers signed up for the 1964 feed grain program in the county. J. Glenn Bates, chairman of the Columbiana Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

This is 126 more than signed up last year.

The sign-up was basically the same as 1963 for three feed grains, corn, barley and grain sorghum.

Two major changes were made in the 1964 grain program.

A producer may divert as much as 50 per cent of his feed grain base acreage (this was 40 per cent in 1963) and those who divert 40 per cent or more of their base acreage will receive diversion payments at the maximum rate for all acres diverted.

Two rates of diversion payment will be offered, but the higher rate should apply to more acres in the 1964 program, Bates said.

Five Injured In Road Mishaps

Negley Motorist Hospitalized Here

A Negley motorist was hospitalized and four other persons received minor injuries in two of eight weekend traffic mishaps on district highways. Some of the accidents were blamed partly on slippery conditions.

In Salem City Hospital with lacerations of the scalp, possible fractured skull and possible internal injuries is Nelson H. Knight, 33, of Box 162, Negley, whose vehicle overturned Saturday night at 7:45 on Route 154, five miles east of Lisbon. He is listed in fairly good condition.

The Lisbon Patrol said Knight failed to negotiate a curve. The car went off the right side of the road and struck a culvert and rolled over. His 1954 Ford coach was a total loss. Knight was cited for speed excessive for conditions.

Hurt in a two-car, nearly head-on crash near Unity on Route 14, two miles west of Route 165, Saturday at 11:20 p.m. were these men:

William L. Lindsay, 22, 831 Boardman St., East Palestine, contusions of the right knee. Raymond Lindsay, 49, same address, contusions of the right leg and possible back injuries. James C. Wormsley, 19, of Sewickley, Pa., contusions of the right arm.

Milton Elwonger, 41, of Boardman St., East Palestine, a passenger in the Lindsay car, whiplash of neck and lacerations of the forehead.

They were to be treated by a physician.

Brazil's Labor Charges Military With Coup Plot

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Brazil's Communist-dominated labor leadership charged today that conservative military men are planning to overthrow left-leaning President Joao Goulart.

Leaders of the General Confederation of Workers vowed to oppose any attempted coup with a general strike and "any methods of fighting which the moment demands."

In a public statement, they urged Brazil's unions and workers to be prepared for a general strike.

The labor leaders issued the warning amid a growing crisis over Goulart's attempts to institute sweeping social reforms and strengthen his power to circumvent a recalcitrant Congress. The trouble came to a head last week with a sit-in strike by 1,400 sailors against alleged political discrimination and poor conditions in the navy.

The sailors surrendered after 40 hours Friday when the General Confederation won a promise from the government that they would not be punished. The rebellion took place in the headquarters of a union affiliated with the labor command.

The navy's officers, including 30 admirals, charged the sailors' revolt had been directed by a group with "clearly Communist characteristics" and called upon the nation to oppose the "communization" of Brazil.

Births Here In '63 Total 1,280; Deaths Are 377

Salem's two hospitals reported a total of 1,280 births during 1963, according to a report issued by the city's Department of Health. The figure is slightly higher than in 1962.

The report shows there were 377 deaths in 1963, with 129 being Salem residents, 16 Perry Township residents and 232 non-residents. The major cause of death was arteriosclerosis, which claimed 126 lives.

Of the total number of births, 217 were born to Salem residents, 52 to Perry Township residents and 1,021 to non-residents.

There were more cases of measles reported to the Department of Health by physicians and hospitals, than any other communicable disease. There were 186 cases of measles compared to: chicken pox, 99 mumps, 93; gonorrhea, 17; scarlet fever, 12 and syphilis, 7.

There were three cases of active rheumatic fever in the city last year and five inactive, and three cases of rheumatic heart disease.

Faubus Halts Gambling In Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Police start checking today to see that this mountain resort city's biggest industry, illegal gambling, is really dead.

Roulette wheels, dice, card tables and slot machines were still Sunday by order of Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Whether the closing is permanent is a question. One club operator predicted the casinos would be in full swing next year. A move is under way to legalize gambling through an initiated act in the November general election.

A city official estimated that 25 per cent of the city's 28,377 residents would be affected immediately by the shutdown.

Mayor Dan Wolf said gambling has been a steady part of the city's economy. "You can't just yank it out, like a bad tooth," he said.

Almost 1,000 casino employees will be without jobs. One of the largest casinos had a payroll of $1.5 million a year.

Hot Springs will lose $140,000 in taxes it collects each year on gambling.

Estimates of the amount spent here annually on illegal gambling run to more than $50 million. The amount spent on housing, food and services probably would double that.

Hot Springs also is the site of Oaklawn Park, a legal horse race track. With six days left in the 43-day race meeting, the park's mutuel machines have handled $22.6 million.

Police also will visit bars, restaurants, service stations and other businesses to see that slot machines are removed.

Many clubs will remain open, at least temporarily. Sale of mixed drinks, also illegal in Arkansas, apparently was not affected by Faubus' order.

BUS SERVICE REDUCED
FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Public bus service here has been reduced to the early morning and late afternoon hours by MAC's Bus Lines, which has announced it will suspend all operations May 11 because of financial problems.

The bus company announced Sunday that, effective, today, buses would run only between 6:15 and 9:15 a.m. and 3:15 and 5:45 p.m. to accommodate school children and factory workers. About 400 school children ride the buses.

FORMER MAYOR DIES

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Dark Blotches On the Skin

Q—How can I fade dark blotches on my skin? How can I whiten my skin?

A—To whiten the skin you must avoid the direct rays of the sun. If dark blotches remain, I know of no drug that can be used to remove them. This leaves you the option of applying masking creams if you consider the blotches unsightly.

When such creams are skillfully applied the results can be very good. A white base should be applied first over the area to be covered. After this a mixture of red and yellow tanning cream should be rubbed in to make the covered area blend with the surrounding skin and give it a flesh color.

Q—My husband is allergic to ant bites. What can he do for it?

A—Although the so-called biting ants use their jaws to hold onto a victim's skin, they inflict their wounds by inserting a stinger and discharging a venom. This has been found not to be formic acid as was once supposed.

Using his head as a pivot, an ant may make two or three stings in the same area. For an allergic reaction, epinephrine or any of a number of antihistaminic drugs may be used; but they will not prevent the formation of blisters or pustules at the site of the sting. These can be treated with antiseptics or the local application of antibiotics or steroid hormones.

There are several species of stinging ants, the worst of which are the fire ants. Because in an allergic person a sting sometimes results in a very severe reaction, every effort should be made to avoid these stings.

Q—I have had trouble swallowing for a long time, but in the last two months I have hardly been able to eat anything. My doctor thinks it is psychosomatic. What do you think?

A—There may be many causes for your condition. If you have injured your esophagus by swallowing lye, you will have a constricting scar that would make swallowing difficult. A tumor of the esophagus itself or a tumor pressing on it from the outside could be a cause.

In some persons the cause is an esophageal outpouching which, when it becomes filled with food, blocks the passage.

Some forms of paralysis involving the muscles of the throat interfere with the act of swallowing. Such a paralysis may be due to myasthenia gravis, poliomyelitis, lead poisoning, botulism, brain fever and diphtheria.

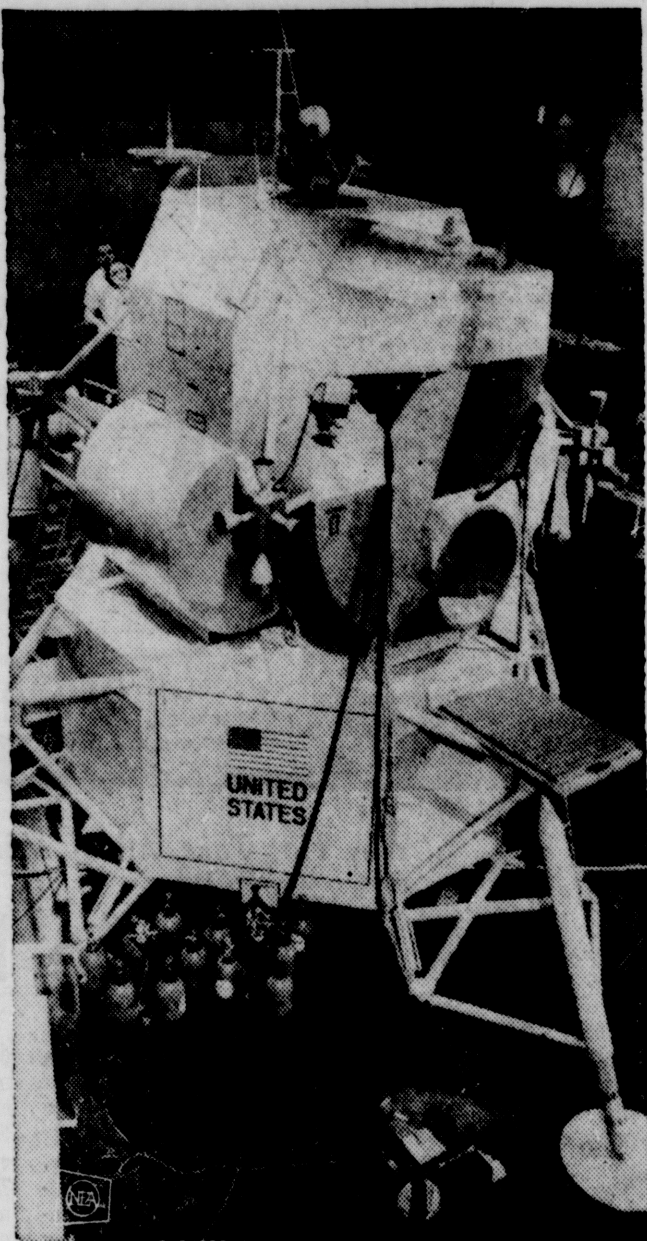

Sometimes swallowing is avoided because it is so painful. Emotional or psychosomatic disturbances must also be considered but not without a careful X-ray examination to show whether there is any obstruction.

After her retirement from nursing, Florence Nightingale assisted Benjamin Jowett in the translation of the dialogues of Plato and she compiled a book of extracts from the Christian mystics, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Monday, March 30, 1964. There are 276 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1867, a treaty was agreed upon under which the United States was to pay $7,200,000 in gold to Russia for the territory of Alaska. The purchase was denounced by many who thought it foolhardy to pay for frozen waste of useless land.

On this date: In 1870, the 11th Amendment, providing that the right to vote should not be denied by the United States or any state on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude, was declared ratified.

In 1893, Thomas Bayard became the first U.S. ambassador to Great Britain—until then the U.S. representative at the Court of St. James's had been a minister.

In 1942, President Roosevelt announced the establishment of a Pacific War Council.

In 1941, the Russians invaded Austria and seized the Baltic port of Danzig.

Ten years ago—Director Harold Stassen of the Foreign Operations Agency ended talks in London on British and French trade with the Soviet Union.

Five years ago — A House committee released secret testimony by two members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; they claimed the United States had more atomic retaliatory strength than was needed to destroy the Soviet Union.

One year ago — The United States announced it would take every step necessary to be sure Cuban exile attacks on Soviet ships or island targets would not be launched from territory.

THIS IS THE YEAR TO BUY A GREAT CAR FROM A GREAT BUNCH OF GUYS

The Dodge Boys were first-place finishers in '63 as Dodge led the entire automotive industry in percentage of sales increase—and they're out to top that record in '64. Here are four big reasons why the Dodge Boys are odds-on favorites to lead the league again:

- They have great cars to sell—the compact Dodge Dart, the low-price Dodge, and the big Dodge 880.
- They give the best deals in town—low prices, big trade-ins.
- They specialize in courteous, reliable service.
- They give the best warranty in the industry: five years or 50,000 miles.

Who's to knock that kind of success formula? Not the Dodge Boys. Need we say more? THIS IS THE YEAR TO BUY A GREAT CAR FROM A GREAT BUNCH OF GUYS—THE DODGE BOYS.

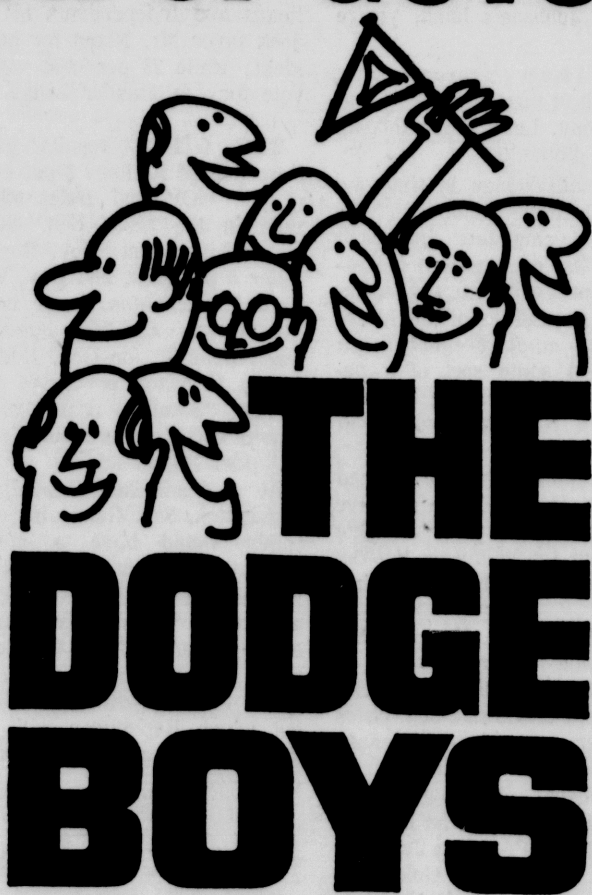

COMPACT DODGE DART

LOW PRICE DODGE

BIG DODGE 880

HERE'S HOW DODGE'S 5-YEAR, 50,000-MILE WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1964 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts; intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential; and rear wheel bearings. REQUIRED MAINTENANCE: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

Someone Said Something

Before the sleeping dogs he woke up with a kick in the slats tear Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., to ribbons, it might be an act of Americanism to admit the man said something worth listening to.

This is more than can be said of anyone else who has spoken in the Senate the last few weeks. Tired old irreconcilables from the South have been mouthing threadbare ideas about segregation, and dynamic young hopefuls from the North have been mouthing wishful thoughts about integration. No one has been listening.

ALONG COMES Sen. Fulbright, and with no one listening at the moment he said what millions of his country have been thinking—that a number of things about U.S. foreign policy could stand some rethinking.

Whether Sen. Fulbright said this as a preliminary to a policy break-through by the Johnson administration is unclear. Perhaps he was hoisting a trial balloon. It isn't consequential whether he was or not. We doubt if he was.

It is consequential, though, that something finally was said in the Senate about foreign policy, something that is being discussed. The greatest deliberative body on earth has shown at least that much evidence of usefulness. An idea has sprung forth from the barren soil of legislative deadlock. Who knows? It might come to flower.

CERTAINLY the maze of blind alleys in which the United States is groping cannot be the be-all and end-all of foreign policy in our time—a bog-down in South Viet Nam, a standoff in Cuba, a dead end in Germany, a rope end in Latin America, a deadlock in Europe, a drift-off in Africa, a sterile truce in Korea.

What Sen. Fulbright has said in total effect is this: Maybe it's time for Uncle Sam to counterpunch, instead of back-pedal.

By one of those mysto-magic turnabouts that are common in Washington, this is being called "appeasement" by Republicans and "dynamism" by the senator's admirers. That only proves the point: He must have said something. There's a difference of opinion.

It Could Happen In Ohio

Ohio's Democratic primary for the U.S. Senate nomination keeps getting "curiouser and curiously."

With Col. John H. Glenn Jr. still unable to make campaign appearances, the possibility looms of a May 5 vote with no Glenn campaign at all.

The other strong candidate in the race, U.S. Sen. Stephen M. Young, is in the awkward position of flailing away at a space-age hero flat on his back in a hospital, forbidden by Marine Corps regulations to say anything in his own behalf.

There is even the possibility that Col. Glenn might be nominated for the U.S. Senate race while still barred from participating in politics.

IN FACT, the possibility has been given a cutting edge by heavy registration in Democratic strongholds—and the eager explanation that this is because the people backing Sen. Young turned on the heat for more participation in the primary doesn't hold water.

A Point Is Settled

The outcry from education officials throughout Ohio against a State Controlling Board order to avert deficit spending has settled a point.

The State Controlling Board, which is responsible for keeping Ohio spending inside the General Assembly's appropriations, will not keep the Ohio Department of Education from spending beyond its appropriation, because school expenditures are determined by formula in the School Foundation Act.

All the Ohio General Assembly can hope to do in its biennial meetings is to make an approximate appropriation based on Department of Education estimates. It cannot be sure it has appropriated enough.

When there has been a deficit, the deficit has been covered by the General Assembly the next time it convened.

Ohio Finance Director Krabach, striving to keep the state in the black, says an estimated school deficit of $9 million in this biennium will have to be made up some way. Gov. Rhodes says his finance director "is going to get tough, real tough. It's possible some heads may start to roll even next week."

It never had been clear before that the Ohio Department of Education was immune to budget-balancing. It is clear now. The School Foundation Act is its only spending guide—not the state finance director, not the State Controlling Board.

One Big Headache

The per capita expenditure for liquor by Columbiana County residents last year was $18.40, the state auditor's office has disclosed.

That's below the state average of $24.81, yet the total $1,762,738 spent by counties represents one big headache some people would rather forget.

Wrong Approach

By Truman Twill

The way things are moving in our ding-a-ling society, with more educational stretchout at the start and early retirement at the end, people will march up he aisles with their diplomas, file their pension claims at the Social Security office and never work a lick.

This is ridiculous. But it's the way things are moving.

Don't things always move in that direction? Else, why would there be this crazy push to automate everything so our big brains can ask some fine morning when nobody's left to buy anything, "where did everybody go?"

But to get back to more time in school at the beginning and less time on the job at the end, we've been going at this proposition backward.

TRUTH IS, people don't want to quit working at the end of their lives when there's nothing else to do anyway. The companion truth is they don't want to start working at the beginning, provided they are smart enough to know how many more pleasant things there are to do, like going to school.

So why don't we take advantage of the way human nature is strung together, instead of going against its grain?

Postpone the beginning of a working career until the very last minute. Keep the popinjays out of the labor market until they're 30, the way it's done now with medical doctors and graduate students in difficult studies, like engineering and architecture.

Make the youngsters stay in school until there's nothing left for them to learn, then release them in direct ratio to the disappearance of their elders.

The disappearance rate would be determined by deaths and the reports of duly constituted boards on the working capacity of persons suffering from assorted disabilities.

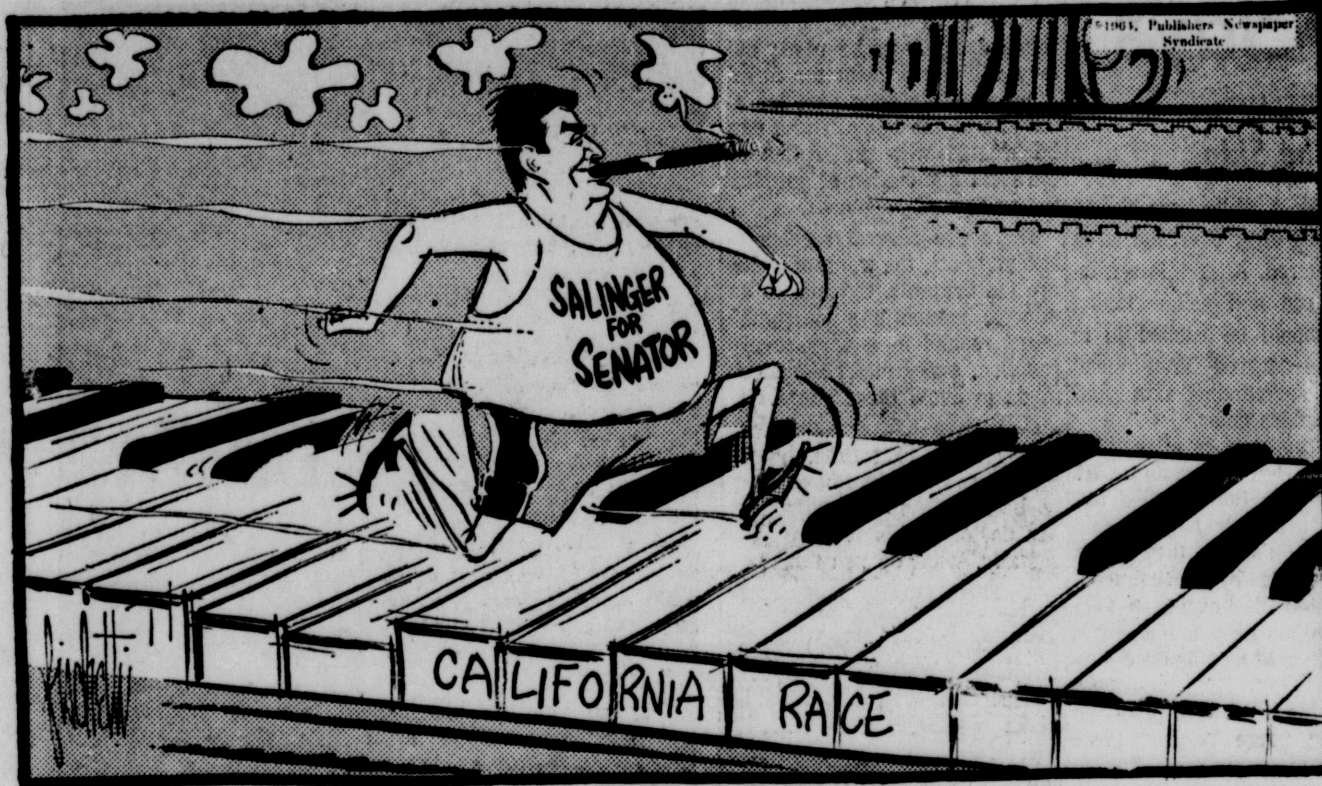

Thus, there would be no unemployment. No one would be at loose ends. Every person would be classified as a worker on active duty, a worker in process of preparation, or as a disabled pensioner. Professional homemakers, inmates of institutions and the idle rich would be "miscellaneous."

THE IDEA in general would be to make life as carefree, beautiful, constructive and ideal for the young as possible, by giving them all the time and resources necessary to taste its multitudinous delights.

Then, when there was nothing else to do, a lifetime of unremitting toil would set in — unremitting only in the sense of repetition because by that time a work week would be down to 20 hours, including coffee breaks, girl-watching and sports seminars.

Two prime sources of dissatisfaction duly constituted boards on the working capacity would be eliminated—reluctance to start to work and reluctance to quit.

We've been going at the whole thing backward—making the experienced throw in the towel before they're ready and pushing the inexperienced into the world before it had jobs for them.

"Why Not Take All of Me?" — A Spirited Rendition

LBJ's Subtle Politicking

By VICTOR RIESEL

Pundits may differ, but I believe the 1964 presidential campaign really began at 10:55 a.m., Tuesday, March 24, at the entrance of the Washington Sheraton Park Hotel.

Victor Riesel

That was an exceptionally large reception committee made up of 19 influential men—all labor leaders. Eighteen of them were heads of the 18 national unions which make up the powerful Building and Construction Trades Dept. (AFL-CIO) and the other was Neil Haggerty, president of the department itself.

Though there were some 2,000 second line officials waiting inside, the President did not rush to the grand ballroom.

Instead, his old friend Neil Haggerty ceremoniously introduced him, one by one, to the assembled national union chiefs. As each one of the labor leaders stepped forward, a union cameraman took a picture of him with the President.

FOR THESE union chiefs it was a proud moment and each picture will soon appear on the front cover of the publications of each influential union. This means that each of the 3 million members of this bloc of unions, which represents the hard core of American labor, will have a copy in his home. There it surely will be interpreted by the members as an endorsement of the President by their own national union leaders.

Having been photographed with the "who's who" of men controlling the AFL-CIO's Executive Council, Mr. Johnson went with them into the big hall, where he slowly made his way to the speakers' dais, shaking hands and exchanging greetings all the way.

From the President's viewpoint all this was more subtle politicking than it appeared on the surface. There was an undertone of which many were unaware but of which the President was not.

THIS IS ONE bloc of unions which is opposed to Robert Kennedy. And they have not hesitated to say so for some time now. The construction organizations are the conservatives of American labor and have not been enthused over the attorney general's friendship and cooperation with such former CIO leaders as Walter Reuther and James Carey, who was the CIO's secretary-treasurer when Reuther was its president. It is not generally known but leaders of this construction group went to John Kennedy at the end of 1960 and argued against the proposed appointment of his brother as head of the Department of Justice. Bob Kennedy learned of this and it engendered no love for them. They were also opposed to the appointment of Arthur Goldberg as secretary of labor.

THE CONSTRUCTION high command was further incensed when Joe Keenan, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, was named assistant secretary of defense for manpower.

Keenan is one of the most popular men in this group. They believed they had a White House pledge for his appointment, but Defense Secretary McNamara rejected him. This also angered AFL-CIO President George Meany, an old colleague and intimate friend of Keenan's, with whom he travels frequently.

So bitter was the reaction to this rejection that John Kennedy invited Keenan to a New York hotel room conference to explain it away and McNamara attempted to do the same by dropping into AFL-CIO national headquarters here.

Rightly or wrongly, many in the construction unions blamed Bob Kennedy for their difficulties with the previous administration. Meany and John Kennedy, however, developed such fondness for each other that there soon developed what insiders described as a father-son relationship. But there was never a thaw in the cold between Bob Kennedy and Meany, who comes out of a construction union, the plumbers.

THIS HAS political significance, because Meany will be the spokesman for labor's bloc at the Democratic National Convention next August, just as he was at the 1960 sessions. At that time some 200 union officials were delegates and alternates to the Los Angeles nominating sessions. There will be more this year.

Just as important as the convention votes which these men can cast during a possible fight for the vice presidential spot, is the campaign machinery they can swing into action. It is important to the Johnson ticket to whip up their enthusiasm. On his his camp is taking no chances.

Last Tuesday afternoon a representative of the Democratic National Committee huddled with officials of the construction unions and went over a list of coming union conventions — for which this is the season.

The committee representative explained that neither Mr. Johnson nor Labor Secretary Wirtz could address them all, but that all would have a high Democratic party leader as a speaker to attest to the Johnson administration's respect for these unions. It was arranged. The presidential campaign is on!

The Kennedy Shadow

By DOUGLAS KIRKER

If the New Hampshire primary proved nothing else—and a lot of people are claiming it did confirm that everybody knew in his private heart all along:

The nation's voters still have not recovered from the political trauma they suffered on Nov. 22, when John F. Kennedy was killed.

Why is it that 1964 is the year when—so far, at least—the future seems to lie in the past? Where is the natural excitement, the strengthening of the national pulse, that wonderful fever which a presidential election gives?

When Americans elect a president they like to keep him for awhile, because the fact is that they do more than elect a president; they create him in their own minds.

Mr. Kennedy had become such an image, and his abrupt tragic departure left behind a boiling wad of confusion, fear and doubt, overcast by a prevailing atmosphere of unreality.

Nothing is politically clear, and already it is late March. Republicans still are casting around both for hard issues and an acceptable candidate to meet the emotional as well as the practical problems caused by the assassination.

The Democrats have their man whether they like it or not, but even he seems to realize that he cannot lay full claim of the office until the whole nation elects him.

Politicking, so far, seems almost like a charade, because of this.

HERE ARE the handful of men to whom luck, ambition and circumstance have given the chance to run for office, and they are performing for us now in the nation's living room—making speeches, taking stand, maneuvering, posturing. There is little real excitement among the voters as they sit and watch and identify with them.

"I've got it, you're Scranton, the reluctant candidate. You're Nixon, quiet and purposeful.

You're Rockefeller, hot for the job. You're Goldwater, frustrated and beginning to get mad. You, the one standing on the chair, you're Lyndon Johnson, above it all. And you, the one holding Johnson's hand, you're Lodge."

And then someone says, "Enough of this. We're all bored and sleepy. Let's break this up and go home."

This will change in time, no doubt. Once the Republicans settle on a candidate and each party has one major spokesman, issues will naturally sharpen, the necessities of the future will pre-empt dreams of the past, and some sort of a national debate, resulting ultimately in a November vote, will get under way.

The Republicans have finished in New Hampshire and have transferred their party struggle West, but the confusion left behind is causing all the comment.

AMBASSADOR Henry Cabot Lodge won and can prove it on paper. But he is the Republican equivalent of the late Sen. Estes Kefauver, it seems, because party leaders consider him a lackadaisical campaigner and an inept politician. And besides, he works for President Johnson.

Both Sen. Barry Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller spent hundreds of thousands of dollars and hundreds of man-hours pursuing the elusive Yankee loyalty, but then claimed the results didn't mean a thing, and struck out for the West. California Republicans, not allowed write-ins, must choose between them on June 15, and the early polls favor the New Yorker, going away. If he does win, that may spell the end of Sen. Goldwater.

But a Rockefeller victory in California might not do him any more good at the end than the New Hampshire win did Mr. Lodge.

The final beneficiary appears to be Richard M. Nixon, whose Gallup poll ratings are on the rise.

Mr. Nixon's political image was further brightened by a poll, conducted by research analyst Lou Harris, and released

March 14 in a copyrighted story by the Rochester, N.Y. Democrat and Chronicle. Based on a scientifically-selected cross section of 1,000 homes, it showed that 37 per cent of the Republicans and Independents in the area favor Mr. Nixon for president; while 23 per cent would vote for Ambassador Lodge.

THE OTHER results gave Gov. George Romney 9 per cent of the GOP and Independent vote in the area; Sen. Goldwater 8 per cent; Gov. Rockefeller 6 per cent, and Gov. William W. Scranton 6 per cent. Mr. Harris said the outcome was "dismal" for Gov. Rockefeller. If Nixon or Lodge fail to run, "Scranton is the bright new face GOP voters would turn to," Mr. Harris added.

At a deadlocked Republican convention, Sen. Goldwater certainly would have a major voice in deciding who was to win, and at this point Mr. Nixon appears to be the only natural and apparent heir to the Goldwater delegate vote.

The biggest question of all is not which Republican will get the nomination, but why anyone would want it this year.

Mr. Johnson has moved with dazzling speed to pre-empt the middle political ground, he has dug in firmly, has good logistic support, and it is difficult to see how any Republican attack could dislodge him.

The national outlook is good. Employment is up. The tax cut has given every wage-earner an increase in take-home pay. The chances for the civil rights bill look bare, and the President will go down fighting for it in any event. He is "heppin' the po' folks" while he placates the rich.

And besides, the average American just doesn't like to have three different Presidents in so short a time.

Mr. John's national popularity rating stands at a dizzy 73 per cent today. This is bound to decrease by November, but any politician will tell you that if he carries 55 per cent of the vote in the election, he will also carry about 20 Democrats into the House of Representatives with him—a working majority that would give him more power than any president has had since Roosevelt in the thirties.

Back Through the Years

(From The News Files)

10 YEARS AGO — The Junior Class at Salem High School will present "A Change of Heart" in the school auditorium tonight at 8:15.

The mercury zoomed into the low 60's this morning, bringing warm relief after the four-day cold spell which gripped the Salem area.

25 YEARS AGO — Judge Homer W. Hammond will speak to the Salem Kiwanis Club at its regular meeting at noon Thursday.

The Willing Workers Class at St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet Sunday at the church.

35 YEARS AGO — The fire deep in the mine at the Call-han Mining Co. was finally reported out today. The fire had been burning for nearly three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leaf of Brooklyn Ave. were hosts to the Bang Bang Club recently.

Ann Landers Answers

Dear Ann Landers: I gather from reading your column that you don't think much of people who drop in without an invitation.

My friends are welcome to come and see me any time. I was raised in Vermont by just plain folks. Who raised you?—GRASSY ARE MY ROOTS.

Dear Grassy: I was raised by just plain folks in Iowa. And I'll wager plain folks in Iowa are just about as plain as you can get.

If you welcome uninvited guests, bully for you, Doll. I don't want 'em. And neither do the vast majority of the folks (both plain and fancy) who write to me.

People who are even remotely sensitive will give you a fighting chance and tell you first. They won't fall in when you have other guests, a basket full of laundry waiting to be ironed, a kid down with the flu—or a column to write.

Worried Mother

Dear Ann: Our daughter, who soon will be 19, is in her second year at a local college. She plans to be a teacher.

Yesterday she told us the history club of her college is planning a weekend excursion out of town. There are boys in the club.

She used to be an obedient daughter but since she started college she has become headstrong and difficult. I've just about decided to tell her, "You're not going and I don't want to hear any more about it."

I fail to see how a weekend of this kind can help her be a better teacher. Her college education is costing us a lot of money and I don't want her to use it as an excuse to tear around with loose males.

How can I make her see this is not meanness on my part, but mother love? Please help me. I feel utterly lost. — NOT COPING.

Dear Not: There is a difference between mother love and another love. A 19-year-old college girl HAS a chaperon—her conscience.

This girl's standards are well established and if you have done your job you need not worry about her. If you have NOT done your job, worrying now will not help. I say let her go—with your blessings.

Dear Ann Landers: This letter will prove that a person is never too old to ask for advice. I'm a 70-year-old widow who is being pestered to death by a male neighbor.

This man is 77 years of age and as spry as a colt. He catches me when I'm working in the garden and sticks like a corn plaster. I've tried locking the door on him but he raps at the window until I finally let him in.

Once he put his arms around me when I was brewing tea and begged for just one little kiss. I told him if he didn't stop being so silly I would telephone his wife. He said, "She'll never believe you. I haven't kissed her in years."

Well, Ann, he was right. I telephoned his wife and she said I must be crazy because he is harmless.

Last October I invited a lady friend to spend a couple of weeks with me. It didn't help. He continued to hang around and he even made a few laws for her. (She is 67.) Tell me how to get rid of this fool.—CANADIAN READER.

Dear Reader: Please don't give me any static about how this man pesters you. A couple of no-nonsense sentences and a door that stays locked would solve your problem permanently. He sounds like he's in his second childhood—and so do you.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Pope Taking Tough Line on Communism

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The framework of a tough new Vatican policy toward communism stood out today after the first Holy Week of Pope Paul VI's reign.

The hardening emerged in speeches delivered by the pontiff during the week. He also again stressed the search for Christian unity and closer ties between Roman Catholics and other Christians.

After a Good Friday procession in which the 66-year-old pontiff carried a cross, he condemned Communist treatment of Roman Catholics as another crucifixion.

In his first Easter speech as Pope, Paul urged atheists and those who oppose religion to accept God.

His Good Friday speech was the strongest papal condemnation of communism since the reign of Pope Pius XII, who died in 1958.

Paul's Easter speech from the loggia of St. Peter's Basilica was taken as both an appeal and a demand to Communists to mend their ways.

His predecessor, Pope John XXIII, never wavered on doctrinal opposition to Communist philosophy and dictatorial methods. But John sought to ease world tension and improve the situation of Catholics in Iron Curtain countries by showing patience and charity in dealing with communism.

John almost never used the term "church of silence," which Pius used to refer to Roman Catholics behind the Iron Curtain. Pope Paul used the term Good Friday.

There was some speculation in Vatican circles that new measures against Catholicism by Red regimes was responsible for the Pope's attitude.

Some Vatican sources considered that the Pope's speeches, particularly his words on atheism, were aimed against a new Soviet campaign to promote atheism.

HELD IN FATAL SHOOTING

CLEVELAND (AP)—An East Side truck driver was being held by police today in connection with the fatal shooting of an 11-year-old girl during an argument between the man and the girl's mother, police said. Held without charge in the death of Jacqueline Tillie was Leonard Anderson, 24. Police quoted Anderson as saying a 22-caliber rifle was discharged accidentally when he struck it against the arm of a chair Sunday. The girl was lying in bed beside her mother, Mrs. Mary Tillie, when the bullet struck her in the chest, police said.

Integrated Crowd Of 35,000 Hears Graham Sermon

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham's Easter appearance before an integrated audience of more than 35,000 was hailed as a tremendous inspirational success by Negroes and white persons.

The gathering at Legion Field, a football stadium in Birmingham, was the largest integrated audience in Alabama's history. It also was the largest religious gathering in the state.

Rigid security precautions were in force, but there were no incidents. The city has been the scene of racial violence in the past.

"Billy Graham has brought out the best in us," said Mayor Albert Boutwell.

A white minister, Dr. John Turner, said, "After waiting some 15 years for such a visitation as Billy Graham and his team, I am moved almost beyond expression to the outpouring of confidence in our fellow man as seen today."

A Negro minister, the Rev. J. L. Ware, said, "It is my candid opinion that this great Christian service will prove to be the turning point in changing the outlook and image of Birmingham into a city of peace and tranquility and prosperity for all people."

Negroes and white persons appeared evenly divided.

Walter Smyth, an associate of Graham, said Police Chief Jamie Moore estimated the crowd at between 35,000 and 40,000.

About 4,000, both white and Negro, responded at the close of Graham's sermon when he called for the penitent to come forward.

FINED AFTER CRASH

LISBON — Donald Lee Barborak, 19, Lisbon RD 2, was fined $10 and costs Sunday by Mayor Dean Stockman after he pleaded guilty to failing to stop within the assured clear distance.

Barborak, driving south on Jackson St., ran into the rear of a car driven by Elizabeth Coleman, 57, of East Liverpool at 4:30 p.m.

CAR INJURIES FATAL

CLEVELAND (AP) — The death of Paul Mahaffey, 9, in Marymount Hospital Sunday was the second resulting from a two-car crash on U.S. 21 in Brecksville. The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mahaffey of Mentor, who are reported in fair condition at the hospital, from which another son, Perry, 7, was released Saturday.

Mrs. Mahaffey's father, Had en A. Walker, 80, was pronounced dead at the hospital following the collision last Thursday night.

JOHN TAYLOR of Salem, Ohio

Delegate-at-large to the 1964 Democratic National Convention

WANTED — Local Democrats who would like to rescue our party from irresponsible "youthful vigor" and replace it with political integrity, political morality, political good judgement, and political good manners.

Don R. Gosney
Columbiana, Ohio

I was surprised—Don—

... to hear about your public request that Senator Steve Young use his office of United States Senator to "influence" the U. S. Marine Corps in your reported efforts to become state chairman of the Democratic Party.

What happened to all that "youthful vigor" you were going to bring to the Democratic Party of Ohio?

Surely you are being a little inconsistent. On the one hand your political manners DEMANDED that Senator Young step aside for you and your "youthful vigor."

Now on the other hand you ask him to use his influence to get the Democratic Party of Columbiana County out of the mess your political judgement got the Party into in the first place—something like the mess you got the Party into when you spark-plugged the opposition to Governor DiSalle that helped elect a Republican Governor.

Your political propaganda writer recently said in a feature newspaper story that you were the most "powerful" politician in eastern Ohio. Certainly you don't need the help of Senator Young if you are so "powerful."

If you are in political trouble, why don't you ask the help of the "congressman" that your "astute" political leadership has made so "great and powerful" along the Champs Elysees in Paris, and under the bright lights of London, Rome, Hong Kong and other interesting places, at American taxpayers expense.

Beta Psi Officers For New Year Are Elected

Mrs. Robert Hill was elected president of Beta Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority Thursday night when that group met at the Ruth Smucker House.

Other officers elected for the coming season are: Vice president, Mrs. Maurice Walker; recording secretary, Mrs. James Foreman; correspondence secretary, Mrs. Billy Crookston; treasurer, Mrs. John Gay; extension officer, Mrs. Gerald Popen; defense officer, Mrs. Joseph Anderson, and representative to the Federation, Mrs.

John Stamp Jr.

Mrs. Hill will also represent the chapter as queen candidate for the coming annual Sweetheart Dance.

Final plans were made for the spring formal dinner April 9 at the "King's Table" near Warren, officers will be installed at that time. The chapter will meet at 6 p.m. at the Smucker House for the pledge rituals and ritual of jewels before going to Warren.

"Speaking" was the topic of the program presented by Mrs. Hill who recorded each member's voice, and "Art and Sculpture" was Mrs. James Foreman's program topic.

An arrangement of a basket of daffodils and colored eggs centered the white linen covered table when refreshments were served. White tapers in crystal holders lighted the table. Mrs. Polen and Mrs. Richard Dunn were hostesses.

The next meeting will be the formal dinner.

Hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: Do the sleeves of your favorite sweater stretch and keep sliding down on your arms?

Here is the way I solved this problem:

Buy enough grosgrain ribbon to go around your arm or wrist at the point where you want the sleeves to stay.

Shrink the ribbon BEFORE measuring, by pre-washing in HOT water.

Sew a seam so that the band will fit your arm exactly. Then attach the grosgrain band to the inside of the ribbing on the bottom of your sleeves.

You will find that the sleeve will not slip down.

This works equally well on the sleeves of a nylon jersey or wool jersey dress.

MRS. C. A. BARRETT.

How did you discover this? You should be given a degree - a PHD for Professional Housewives' Discovery!

After all, nearly all of us do wear sweaters, and have nylon and wool jersey dresses.

THE RED FACE OF HAVANA

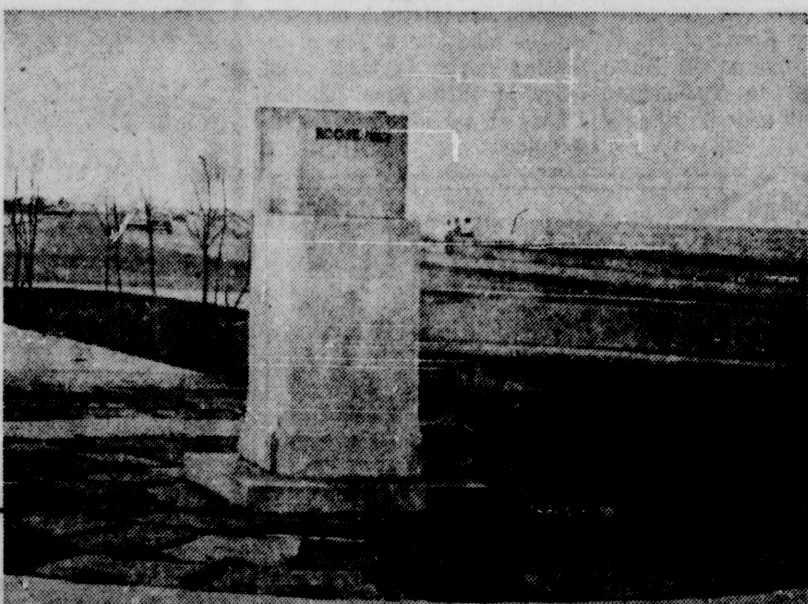

Sign in downtown Havana calls Lenin (left) and Marx welcome for a long life for the party. Castro (center) to their group.

Girls' militia member is posing.

A CANADIAN university student, Dan Bjarnason, recently returned from Communist Cuba with a deeper appreciation of his own country. His trip convinced him that Fidel Castro is a confirmed Communist and that many Havana residents are well on their way to becoming the same. "The propaganda was everywhere," he said. Political arguments with Cuban students consumed much of his time. He took these pictures. One of his most vivid memories was signs wishing a "Merry Socialist Christmas."

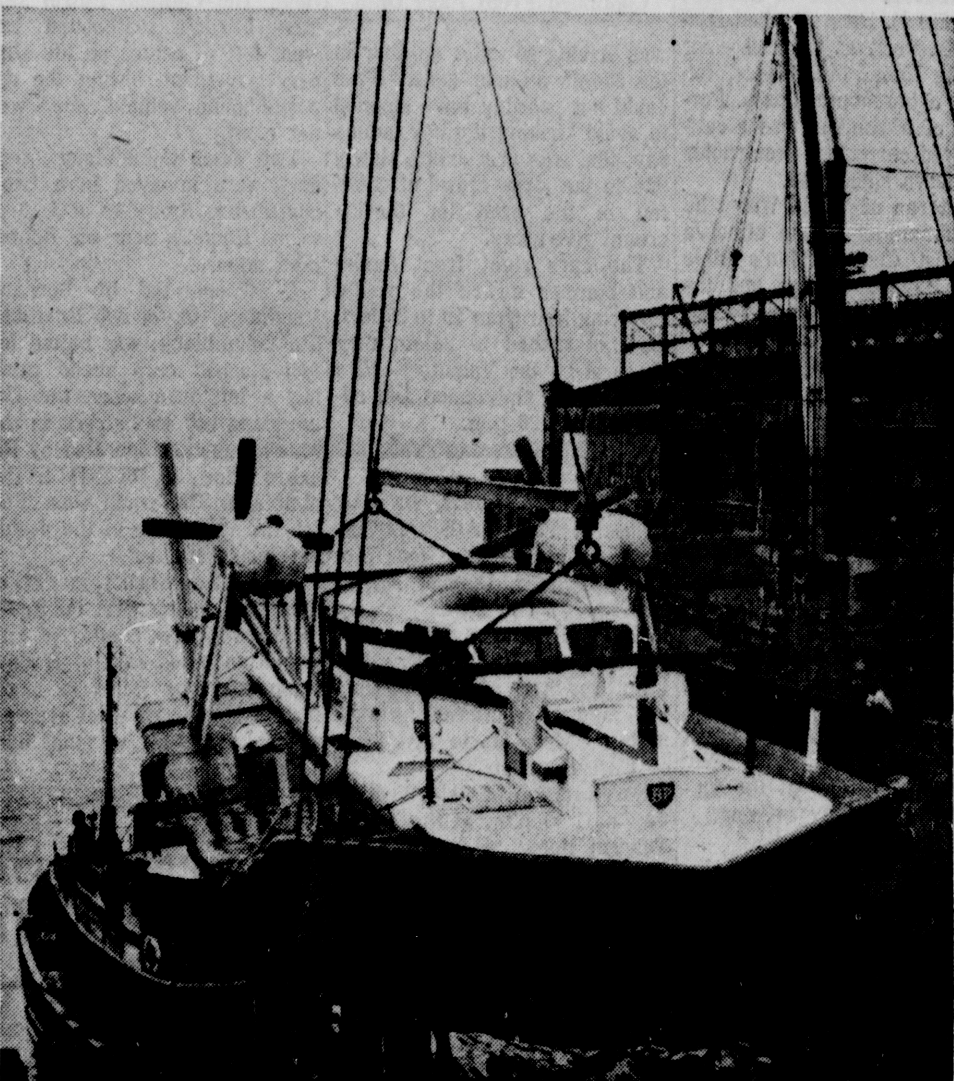

A grim reminder is this ruined monument to Theodore Roosevelt.

American eagle was once perched on Memorial to the Battleship Maine.

Italian Airliner Crash Fatal to 45 Under Probe

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—The bodies of 45 persons killed in an Easter Eve airliner crash on Mt. Vesuvius lay in a Naples morgue today as three investigations sought the cause of the tragedy.

Officials said it would take some days before identification could be completed. Most of the bodies were too burned and mangled to be identified except with the help of dental charts.

The 40 passengers included 8 Americans, 20 French, 7 Italians, 4 Swiss and an Englishwoman. All five crew members were Italian.

The plane, an Alitalia Viscount, crashed and burned 90 minutes before midnight Saturday. It was coming in for a landing at Naples after a flight south from Turin, Milan and Rome. Flying through fog and rain, the plane hit a high lava hump jutting out halfway up the side of the 3,700-foot volcano.

The Americans aboard included a family of four, Army Maj. Lawrence H. Mancini, 38, from the Defense Medical Supply Center in Brooklyn, his wife and their two children, Jill, 10, and Steven, 9; Navy Lt. Robert T. Adkinson, Pensacola, Fla.; J. H. McFadden, Navy Receiving Station, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Thomas Vendur, Norfolk, Va., and a Mr. Hamilton, who carried a U.S. passport and boarded the plane in Milan.

was driving west when he went over the center line and collided with the eastbound Lindsay auto. The Sewickley youth was cited for driving left of center.

Two motorists were cited after a three-car mishap involving a district man Saturday at 10:30 a.m. on Route 45, about five miles south of Salem. No one was hurt.

Harold L. Wiles, 51, of Cleveland was cited for failure to yield the right of way and Carlton L. Sisler, 43, of Charlotte, Mich., with failure to signal a turn.

Sisler was trying to pass another vehicle when Wiles also pulled out to overtake a car operated by George H. Howard, 49, of RD 1, Hanoverton. Sisler ran off the left side of the road, came back on to avoid striking a guard rail and hit the front of Wiles' car, knocking it into the front of Howard's vehicle.

Nancy Jean Baughman, 24, of New Waterford lost control of her car on wet pavement Saturday at 4 p.m. on Route 267, three miles north of East Liverpool. The southbound vehicle went off the left side of the highway, hit a guard rail and overturned. Her auto was demolished. She was cited for speed excessive for conditions.

In another one-car mishap, Denver L. Rhodes, 56, of RD 1, East Palestine, tried to avoid hitting a dog Saturday at 12:20 a.m., swerved his car, went off the left side and struck an embankment on Route 14, two-tenths of a mile west of Route 170 north of East Palestine.

Only moderate damage resulted when cars operated by Cheryl Liston, 16, of 616 Fairfield St., Columbiana, and William Spear, 51, of Warren collided Sunday at 10 p.m. on Route 14, a mile south of Canfield. The Canfield Patrol said Miss Liston's southbound car went left of center on the slippery pavement, hitting the opposite-bound vehicle. She was not cited.

Two other Columbiana area cars were involved in a two-car mishap Saturday at 5:10 p.m. on Route 7, near the Boardman square.

A car operated by Bernard Vinakins, 48, of 446 Pittsburg St., Columbiana, was halted for two stopped cars ahead making a left turn when the Columbiana car was struck in the rear by another operated by Richard Pine, 16, of RD 1, Columbiana. The youth was cited for failing to stop in the assured clear distance.

Russell Lee Stackhouse, 31, of Mansfield, going west on Route 30, struck a tree Sunday at 1:25 p.m. five miles east of Hanoverton when he failed to negotiate a curve and went over an embankment. He was not hurt or cited.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Properation 88. At all drug counters.

County Welding Club

The first meeting of the Columbiana County 4-H Welding Club will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the New Waterford School.

The club is open to boys between 14 and 20 years of age interested in developing a skill in welding, according to Robert Lewis, county extension agent in 4-H.

The period of study will cover approximately three months, with Alfred Cope of Middleton, serving as adviser. A fee will be charged to pay for welding materials for those attending the course, Lewis said.

Two U.S. Women Fliers Resume World Flights

CASABLANCA, Morocco (AP)—Two American women fliers resumed their solo flights around the world today in their light planes.

Mrs. Geraldine L. Mock, 38, of Columbus, Ohio, took off from Casablanca in her single-engine Cessna for Bone, in eastern Algeria. She stopped overnight in Casablanca for repairs to a wheel brake and because of poor weather.

The weather was fine when she began her flight today. Originally she planned to fly directly to Tunis but decided instead to break up the trip at the Mediterranean port.

Mrs. Joan Merriam Smith, 27, of Long Beach, Calif., took off from Surinam (Dutch Guiana) for Natal, Brazil, after being held up for eight days for fuel tank repairs. Her twin-engine Piper Apache's tanks were repaired Sunday.

She plans to cross the Atlantic from Natal to Dakar, Senegal.

Alaska

15 were still missing. Anchorage, center of the Alaskan recovery effort, went soberly about its business, flinching at successive after-shocks.

One shake, felt strongly in Anchorage Easter evening, was rated at 7.3 on the Richter scale of energy by the University of Washington at Seattle, 1,500 miles away. University scientists said it was a separate quake, in the Aleutian trench 600 miles northwest of Friday's epicenter, but Anchorage felt it with jittery apprehension.

An earlier mid-afternoon shock led to a civil defense warning of a new tidal wave headed for Seward. It was called off quickly, but people who had lived through Friday evening's terror fled to high ground.

The Friday evening quake was rated by experts at 8.2 to 8.7 on the Richter scale. This scale, measuring the release of energy, has never before rated a quake higher than 8.6 and then only rarely and in unpopulated places.

Anchorage wholesale grocers estimated they had about a 30-day stock of essential foods on hand—mostly in wrecked warehouses, but still usable.

Electric current was being restored slowly. Many homes and buildings were without light heat or power.

Drinking water had to be boiled or melted from snow. Mass typhoid inoculations were arranged.

Police, soldiers and National guardsmen, patrolling downtown Anchorage, reported no cases of attempted looting.

Workers started pulling down teetering four-ton slabs of the modernistic five-story J. C. Penney store and other dangerous ruins. Dynamiting was considered and rejected.

A civil defense official said, "It is still possible some victims are in the rubble. We might not get to some for quite a while."

600 Attend Lisbon Easter Program

LISBON — Over 600 children and parents attended the annual community Easter party Saturday afternoon at the county fair grounds, according to Melvin Stark, chairman.

The Lions Club, sponsor of the yearly event, showed four movie cartoons in the floral hall prior to the hunt for the 90 dozen eggs hid by members of the Lions Club.

Fifteen rabbits and a number of other prizes were distributed. Assisting Stark were Harry Morris, Jack Hurst, Carroll Joseph and Francis Barber.

Car Rams House; 2 Youths Hurt

Two youths were slightly hurt and treated at Youngstown South Side Hospital after a car rammed the house where they were sitting Saturday night at 9 on Route 626, a mile south of Route 7 near North Lima.

Treated were Harry McGraw, 20, of RD 1, North Lima, abrasions and contusions of the right thigh, and William Stitzel, 17, of Youngstown, lacerations of the left eye and elbow abrasions.

The Canfield post of the State Highway Patrol said the boys were in the house occupied by Mrs. Opal McGraw and owned by Amil Dinsio of Calla Rd., Poland, when a car operated by James Naughton, 37, of Youngstown struck the front. The northbound vehicle went off the left side and plunged into the structure, considerably damaging it.

Weather

In the northeast, where amounts of four inches in places were expected by this morning.

Blinding squalls of brief duration swept across Central and Southern Ohio Sunday. Columbus and Dayton got about an inch of snow in intermittent squalls. Farther south, there was little accumulation but roads became icy.

Early today, the Highway Patrol was warning motorists that 15 to 25 miles an hour should be top speed on most Buckeye highways until they cleared. The roads were reported dangerous in nearly all parts of the state.

Fender-bender accidents were frequent Sunday night in numerous locales.

Ohio Turnpike officers reported that 30 automobiles slid off the superhighway, and a chain-reaction accident damaged eight cars east of the Stony Ridge interchange near Toledo.

Some of what was to come later for most sectors occurred early in the Kirtland area of southwestern Lake County. An isolated storm piled six inches of snow there, hampering commuters and causing traffic jams on U.S. 6 and Ohio 306 before snow plows cleared the highways.

Strong winds accompanied the snow and were forecast to continue today.

A snow squall in the Wilmington area on Easter brought a harrowing brush with death for a Cincinnati pilot, his 14-year-old daughter and 12-year-old son. Their small plane crashed among trees on a farm near Lake Cowan and was demolished, but they escaped with serious injury only to the pilot, Arthur Miller, 35.

Until the sudden blinding flurries, the holiday weather over much of Ohio had been sunny though brisk.

The snowstorm that struck the state barreled in from the West, dumping a record snowfall of nine inches on Chicago along the way.

The storm concentrated chiefly in the Chicago area before moving into the Ohio Valley. The official depth of seven inches at Midway Airport was the heaviest on record for Easter, topping the previous high of 6.4 inches set on Easter Sunday, April 4, 1920.

Snow fell in other parts of Illinois and in Midwestern sections of the nation.

Rotarians to Hear Talks By Students

High school students, two from Salem and two from United, will tell about their trip to the recent World Affairs Institute at Cincinnati during the Rotary Club luncheon at the Memorial building Tuesday.

All four students to address the group are juniors. Speaking from Salem will be Ron Herron and Miss Diane Waller, and from United Miss Marilyn Stinner and Miss Sally Leatherberry.

in the executive suite of the Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

MacArthur entered the hospital 28 days ago today suffering from severe jaundice — and on March 6 underwent his first operation. Doctors removed gallstones and his gall bladder to relieve a bile obstruction causing the jaundice.

Recovery progressed normally, with the general receiving visitors, taking short walks and eating a regular diet.

Last Monday he was stricken with the rupture and bleeding of a varicose vein in his esophagus. Doctors operated again, this time under emergency conditions, to stem the bleeding. They rerouted major veins to relieve the pressure, removing the spleen in the process, and stopped the bleeding.

Again recovery seemed to continue normally, until the general was hit again, this time by pneumonia, an inflammation at the base of his right lung.

Under antibiotic therapy, the lung showed marked improvement, and he was reported recovering until the second emergency Sunday.

Morris kept the office closed until noon today, instead of opening at the usual 10 a.m.

The robbery was discovered at about 8:05 a.m. when Mrs. George McCloskey, an employee, arrived for work.

The auto club was broken into sometime during the first weekend in February of 1962 and $2,000 was taken from the safe. The intruders in that case were later arrested in another city and are currently serving prison terms, police said.

CAN'T QUALIFY FOR AID

LISBON — Columbiana County Commissioner Galen Greenisen of Salem, who attended the northeast district flood disaster meeting Saturday afternoon in Akron, said today he didn't think any area in the county could qualify for the $6,500 federal aid allotted for the county.

Ten counties were represented, with approximately 40 persons in attendance.

1,500 Take Part In Egg Hunt Here

Approximately 1,500 children participated in the annual Easter Egg Hunt at Centennial Park Saturday, sponsored by the United Commercial Travelers, according to Aubrey Cain, chairman.

Thirteen children found golden eggs and were presented live white rabbits. The lucky children were: Richard and Claudia Hanna, Dennis and Debbie Rippe, John Yakubek, Tommy Thompson, Jeff Votaw, Monte Landwert, Debbie Cochrane, Dacia June, Lisa Rea, Greg Mack and Timmy Cioffe.

Over 5,000 foil-wrapped eggs were hidden for the children to hunt. The Veterans of Foreign Wars drill team and Boy Scouts assisted in the event.

Home Good Investment Only If It Fits Family Needs

If your house doesn't fit family needs, no amount of money can make a good investment out of it, advises housing specialist Glenda Pifer, extension worker with the University of Illinois.

The safest way to get a reasonable facsimile of what you need is to know in advance what you require, she points out. We all know people who have bought houses for impulsive reasons — the swimming pool is in a beautiful setting, there is a marvelous workroom for the man of the family, or the lady of the house has at last found her dream kitchen. But one bright gizmo doesn't make a house.

This specialist suggests that once you've determined your family's living habits, activities in the household, furniture space and future housing needs, you can sit down and list your needs under subheads: working, living, sleeping.

LISTS NECESSARY THINGS first, and look for those things, regardless of whether the kitchen is pink or blue. Other things being equal, a small paint job could change a color that is distasteful.

Miss Pifer suggests this check list:

Does the amount of available space fit the family's size, possessions and activities?

Is there circulation within the spaces where it is needed? Is the space dead ending where no circulation is desired? Is the space flexible so that the house will fit the family's needs now and later?

WILL SUCH FEATURES as heights and amounts of work spaces in the kitchen and utility room be sufficient and convenient?

Is space readily available for recreational activities? Are bedrooms adequate — in both number and size?

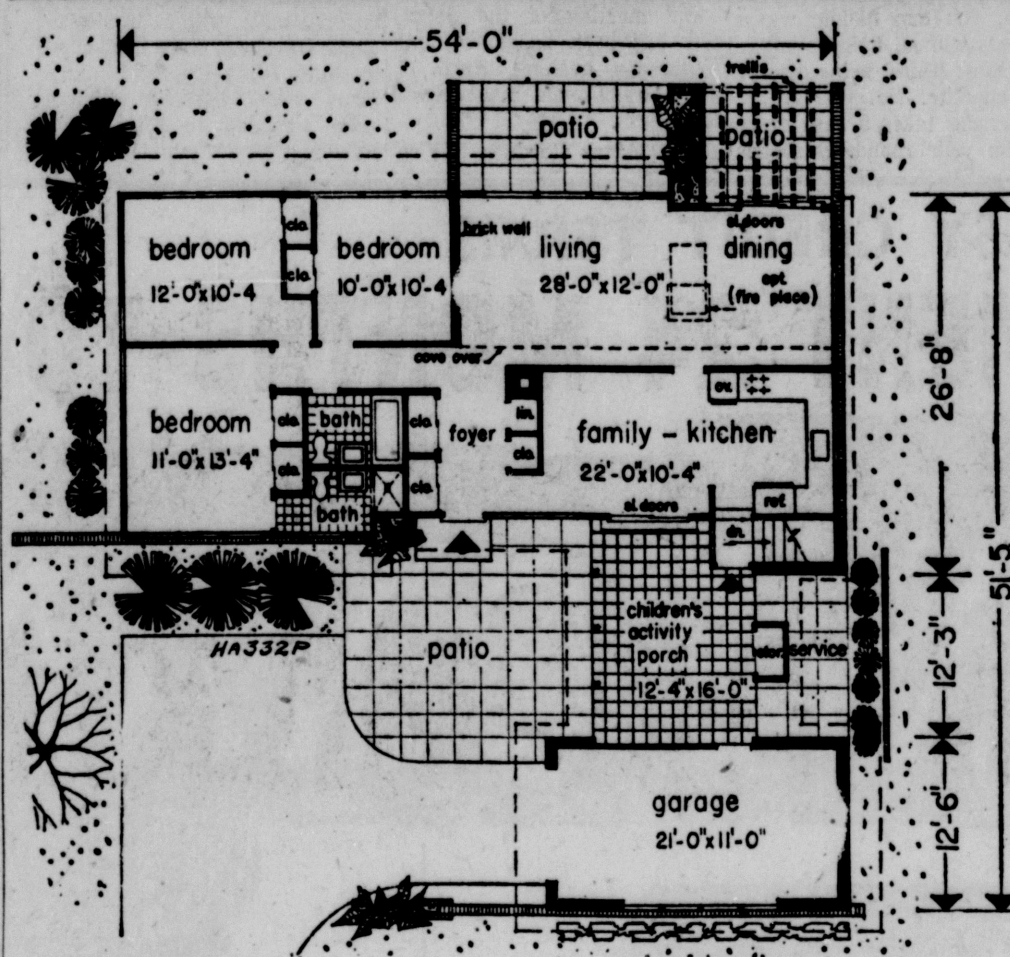

Do storage spaces allow storage in terms of first use, clear visibility and accessibility?

Is natural and artificial lighting controllable and directed to put general and specific lighting where needed?

CAN SOUND ORIGINATING inside and outside be controlled?

Do furnishings, equipment, materials and construction promote safety?

There are other important considerations that should be well thought out before the family looks for a home in a particular area. These include being near transportation that suits working members of the family, and within a reasonable distance from schools and recreational facilities for children. The convenience of shopping to mothers of small children. And for couples with young children it is important to choose a house that is in an area with other children of the same age level.

THOUGH ECONOMICAL, this ranch affords many big-house features—a foyer, central hall, family room, two full baths and a secondary service entrance. The unusual design, an L-shape, can fit on a 65-foot lot. Both porch and garage could be added later; the porch could be screened in or enclosed with shutters to make an indoor recreation room. The living room has an attractive brick wall, a cathedral ceiling with recessed lighting and planter cove and an optional free-standing fireplace. Two rear patios, one trellised for shade, add to outdoor leisure. Plan HA332P was designed by Samuel Paul, 89-30 161 St., Jamaica 32, N. Y., and contains 1,305 square feet.

Know Replacement Process Before Fixing Broken Tile

While it is true that ceramic tile is extremely durable and will probably last the life of the house, there may come a time when repairs are necessary.

You may want to remove some tiles for the installation of matching towel bars or toothbrush holders, or you may have to remove a few to get at plumbing in the wall.

You will need some ceramic tile adhesive when you make repairs. Read the label carefully. It must specify that it is for ceramic tile.

You will also need a hammer and a cold chisel. Carefully cut around the damaged tile. This will loosen the old cement. If the tile is damaged, you can break it and remove the pieces. Avoid chopping adjoining tiles.

IF THE OLD TILE is simply loose and you are going to put the same one back, carefully remove all traces of the old adhesive from its back.

The wall behind it should be carefully scraped and cleaned. With both tile and wall clean, butter the back of the tile with adhesive. Press the tile into place.

The surface of the tile should be flush with the rest of the wall. Wipe away excess adhesive. With the tile in place, use small wooden wedges to hold the tile in line with the others. There should be a small space all around.

If you have to cut the tile you are replacing, use a glass cutter. Score the glazed surface, then break the tile over a straight edge. If you have to cut a curved shape, mark the cut with the glass cutter, then use the cutter to score most of the surface you intend to cut away. Chew away the scored area with pliers, a little at a time.

USE A FILE OR grindstone to smooth the rough edges.

Once the tile is firmly in place and the adhesive set, you are ready to fill the opening all around with grout. Fill the crack around the tile with the grout, applying with a putty knife. Wipe away the excess with a damp sponge.

If you have replaced several tiles in a single area, a simpler way to grout them is to apply a thin mixture of grout to the entire surface with a paint brush. Go over the area and make sure all joints are filled. Then wipe off the excess with damp sponge.

Half of Painting's Battle Is In Those Little Preparations

Painting can be a tough job or it can be easy. It depends on how well you prepare for your work.

Begin correctly by gathering together everything you will need before you start. Make a checklist. In addition to paint, brushes and thinner, include such items as drop cloths, newspapers, rags, putty knife, screwdriver, masking tape, patching plaster or spackle, sandpaper, pails or large cans for mixing paints, a paint paddle, shal-lac (for priming patches) and a stepladder.

For outdoor painting, your list might include wire brush or scraper for removing loose and blistered paint, wood filler, aluminum paint for touching up nail heads, extension ladders, caulking.

INDOORS, ESPECIALLY, get the area ready for painting. Take down pictures. Remove switch plates and outlet covers. Tape the screws to the plates with cellulose tape so you can find them later.

Remove lamps and small pieces of furniture. Move large furniture to the center of the room. If the rug is removable, roll it up and get it out. Otherwise cover the entire area with several thicknesses of newspaper or a drop cloth. Cover the furniture with drop cloths also.

WALLS THAT ARE very dirty should be washed and left to dry thoroughly. This is especially true of kitchen walls that might be greasy.

Sand off peeling paint. Prime the sanded surface with shellac or an extra coat of the paint that you will eventually use.

Repair cracks in the plaster several days ahead of time so that the patch has time to dry. Use spackling compound for tiny cracks. Larger cracks will require patching plaster. Open up the cracks, making the opening larger inside than at the surface. Wet thoroughly before filling with fresh plaster.

Once the patched areas are dry, sand them and prime them with paint or shal-lac.

Remove door knobs and other hardware. Put masking tape on panes of glass along the edges. After painting the sash, remove it.

STIR OR MIX YOUR paint thoroughly. Best method is to pour it from one container to another, back and forth until it is thoroughly mixed. If there are lumps in the paint, strain through an old nylon stocking.

Pour a small amount of paint into a paint bucket and keep the rest in the paint can, which should be kept tightly closed. You'll have less mess if you place your paint container in a large can to catch drips.

Open windows for ventilation; then, you're ready to paint.

Here's the Answer

QUESTION: We have some land and are getting ready to build a house on it. Our plan is to have masonry walls, but in looking into the matter, we are getting a little confused about the different types of such walls. The three we have heard the most about are solid masonry walls, cavity walls and veneer walls. Can you tell us something about the differences between them?

ANSWER: A solid masonry wall is what the name implies—a wall made of solid masonry, which can be either brick or concrete block. However, there are variations of the solid wall, either one-unit thick or two or more units thick. In most cases, when a solid wall is two or more units thick, the outside masonry is of a more expensive grade. A cavity wall is made up of two masonry walls, with an air space of two or three inches. The masonry is held together with metal. Adherents of the cavity wall way the air space prevents moisture penetration and acts as added insulation. A veneer wall is composed of masonry units on the outside of a frame wall. The masonry is merely the finished surface rather than the wall itself. Before deciding on which of the walls to use—and discussing their advantages and disadvantages with your architect or builder—be sure you inquire about the building code in your area. Some sections require solid masonry walls two or more units thick.

QUESTION: We have a French provincial living room suite with a lot of carvings on it. Is there an easy way to remove the finish from it at home?

Indians' 5th Inning Rally Edges Los Angeles 7-6

Luplow Socks Homer In 1st Siebert Hit Hard; Rookie Is Injured

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Al Luplow has put the pressure on the five other contenders for the Cleveland Indians' right field spot.

The ex-Michigan State football star whacked his second spring home run and doubled to ignite a fifth-inning rally in the Tribe's 7-6 victory over the Los Angeles Angels "B" team Sunday. Cleveland's lineup was made up mostly of second team players, too.

Two errors by center fielder Dick Simonson were instrumental in the Indians' victory. They accounted for two runs.

Sonny Siebert may have eliminated himself from the Tribe's pitching plans. He appeared for the second time this spring and gave up four runs and seven hits in three innings, walked three and threw two wild pitches. In his previous performance, Siebert allowed seven earned runs and eight hits in 2 2-3 innings.

Shortstop Larry Brown had two of Cleveland's eight hits. Tommie Agee, another right field candidate, tried to drive in two runs in the fourth. He scored on Brown's double.

Tommy John, who relieved Siebert, pitched six innings, giving up two runs on three hits. But he was wild and was rapped hard.

Luplow, who homered in the first inning, led off the fifth with a double and scored on a single by Mike de la Hoz. Tito Francona lined to center, but Simonson dropped the ball for a two-base error. Agee hit a deep but routine fly ball and Simonson dropped that one, too, allowing Francona to score from second.

The loss went to Bill Kelso, who relieved rookie Bob Lee in the fifth.

Rookie infielder Vern Fuller, a pinch hitter for Siebert, suffered a fractured left shoulder blade when he was hit by a Lee pitch. Doctors said he would be sidelined for several weeks. Gordon Seyfried and Sam McDowell were the mound choices for today's game against San Francisco at Phoenix.

Leads Azalea Open With 207 Card

Besselink Near First PGA Win In 7 Years

By KEN ALTYA
WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—It's been almost seven years since Al Besselink won a regular PGA circuit golf tournament. Not since the 1957 Kansas City Open has the big blond from Merchantville, N.J., won on the tour.

But he was 18 holes away from victory today as the final round of the $20,000 Azalea Open started. Besselink's par 72 Sunday after earlier rounds of 70-65 gave him a 207 total, nine under par, and a two-shot edge over Joe Campbell, the first round leader.

Asked how he planned to play the final 18 holes over the 6,744-yard Cape Fear Country Club course, Besselink replied:

"Well, I won't do any unnecessary gambling, but I certainly won't be playing safe. I've never been known to be a safe player. I won't do anything to jeopardize my lead, but I'll be firing at the hole."

"If I don't win, maybe next week it will be better or if not then, maybe the next week. I'm playing so well now that something has to bust."

Besselink picked up $400 in bonus money for leading after 54 holes to go along with $1,000 he pocketed Saturday for leading the second round and also shooting its low score.

He made only one birdie Sunday, but an eagle on the 565-yard third hole gave him his big push. He used his driver twice and then needed only a five-foot putt for the eagle.

Two traps and a hooked shot into the woods cost him three bogies.

Campbell, first day leader with 67, had slumped to 73 in the next round, but charged back with 69 for second place.

The 69 was the day's low score, tied by Dutch Harrison, celebrating his 54th birthday, and Rod Funseth. The three divided $600 in bonus money.

Sharing third place at 210 were Tommy Jacobs, Lionel Hebert and Larry Mowry.

Bob Gajda, who held second place in each of the first two rounds with a pair of 68s, slumped to 75 for a four-way sixth place tie at 211. A triple bogey seven on the 17th, where he hit a ball out of bounds, cost him second place.

Harrison, Jack McGowan and Jerry Pittman were tied with Gajda.

Mike Souchak and Pete Brown followed at 212, one stroke ahead of Gene Littler, Funseth, Bruce Crampton, Doug Ford and Billy Casper.

Untried Rookie Pressed Into Service

Substitute Goalie Inspires Detroit To Nip Chicago 5-4

By JOE MOOSHIL
CHICAGO (AP)—Bob Champoux' first National Hockey League appearance came in a Stanley Cup game and it probably will be his last, at least for this season.

Despite the fact that the 21-year-old native of Montreal came out of the stands to inspire Detroit to a 5-4 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks, Champoux will be no more than a spare goalie for the rest of the playoffs.

Regular Terry Sawchuk was forced to leave Sunday night's game with a pinched nerve in his left shoulder after five minutes of the first period.

Champoux, who turned pro late last November and played with Cincinnati of the Central League where he allowed an average of 5.34 goals a game, was pressed into service.

When Champoux came on the ice, the Hawks had already taken eight shots at the Detroit goal while not allowing the Wings a crack at Glenn Hall.

But Champoux' presence changed all of that. With an untried rookie at the nets, the Wings went all out for the youngster. Through the rest of the first period, they allowed the Hawks only three more shots and then held them to an unbelievable two through the first 15 minutes of the second period.

Meanwhile, Norm Ullman picked up two goals and Andre Pronovost scored a third while Detroit was short handed for a 3-0 lead.

Bill Hay scored twice for the Hawks within a minute in the second period to cut Detroit's lead to a goal but Gordie Howe canned one with three seconds left for a 4-2 lead. Ullman completed his hat trick at 2:59 of the third period to offset goals by Eric Nesterenko at 4:01 and 4:31.

From then on the Hawks tried desperately to tie the score but were turned back by the fired-up Red Wings and their novice goalie.

There was no question that Champoux' appearance gave the Red Wings the boost they needed to tie the best-of-seven semifinal series at one game each.

While the Hawks and Wings resume their series in Detroit Tuesday night, the semifinal series between Montreal and Toronto shifts to Toronto the same night.

Montreal won its opener 2-0 Thursday but Toronto came back to tie it up Saturday with a 2-1 victory. The Hawks opened with a 4-1 decision over Detroit Thursday and appeared ready to pick up from there in the first five minutes Sunday night before Champoux showed up.

LEGAL NOTICE

(Amended Senate Joint Resolution No. 53)
JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing to amend Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio to authorize the issuance of bonds or other obligations up to five hundred million dollars, the proceeds thereof to be used to provide adequate highways in Ohio.

Whereas, in order to continue the economic development of this state it is necessary to advance the completion of the major highway system without increasing the burden on the taxpayers of the state, and whereas, such a system can be financed from revenues at present rates and without impairing other highway programs.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to each house thereof concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Ohio, in the manner prescribed by law, at a special election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, 1964, a proposition to amend Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio by adding thereto a new section as follows:

ARTICLE VIII
Section 2g. The state may contract debts not exceeding five hundred million dollars for the purpose of providing moneys for acquisition of rights-of-way and for construction and reconstruction of highways on the state highway system and urban extensions thereof. The principal amount of any part of such debt shall be paid at such time or times and in such amounts as shall be fixed by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund provided that the entire debt shall be discharged within the year 1983. The bonds or other obligations evidencing the debt authorized by this section shall bear interest and shall be sold upon such terms as may be prescribed by law. Both the principal of such debt and the interest thereon shall be exempt from taxation within this state. Moneys raised under the authority of this section shall be expended only to provide adequate highways, including engineering and the acquisition of rights-of-way and including participation therein with the federal government, municipal corporations, counties and other legally authorized participants. All construction shall be done by contract as shall be provided by law. No part of such proceeds shall be appropriated except to meet the requirements of programs or schedules of acquisition of rights-of-way, highway construction and reconstruction which the governor, or other highway authority designated by law, with the concurrence of the governor, shall submit to the general assembly before such appropriations are made. Such appropriations shall be made only for major thoroughfares of the state highway system and urban extensions thereof. The debt contracted under the authority of this section shall be evidenced by bonds or other obligations issued by the State of Ohio as provided by law. The faith and credit of the state are hereby pledged to the payment thereof and the interest thereon. Such bonds or other obligations shall be paid from moneys derived from fees, excises or license taxes levied by the State of Ohio, relating to registration, operation, or use of vehicles on public highways, or to fuels used for propelling such vehicles, and a sufficient amount thereof, after provision for the amounts required by Article VIII, Section 20 of the Constitution of the State of Ohio for obligations issued pursuant to that section, is hereby appropriated in each year for the purpose of paying the interest on the outstanding debt and the principal of such debt contracted under authority of this section without other appropriations, but according to regulations to be established by law. Provision may be made by law for the transfer and the use of any amount of such moneys in excess of that required, in any year, for the payment of interest on and the principal of such debt contracted under authority of this section and said section 2c.

Be it further resolved, That at the election herein designated for the submission of this amendment to the electors of the State of Ohio, the same shall be placed on the official ballot in the manner prescribed by law and shall be designated as follows:

To amend Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio to provide adequate highways in Ohio and to issue bonds or other obligations to provide funds therefor, payable from fees, excises or license taxes, relating to registration, operation, or use of vehicles on public highways, or to fuels used for propelling such vehicles.

And be it further resolved, That the required publication of the said proposed amendment shall be made and the form of ballot to be used in said election for the submission thereof shall be prepared by the Secretary of State of the State of Ohio in conformity with the above provisions. If a majority of the electors voting on said amendment be declared according to law to have voted in favor thereof, the governor of the State of Ohio shall make proclamation thereof forthwith.

TED W. BROWN, Secretary of State of Ohio, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the Senate Joint Resolution No. 53 filed in the office of the Secretary of State and proposing to amend the above section of the Constitution of the State of Ohio as provided by law. The faith and credit of the state are hereby pledged to the payment thereof and the interest thereon. Salem News, March 30; April 6, 13, 20 and 27, 1964.

Koufax Is First Pitcher To Go Distance

Mantle Hits 2 Home Runs; Yankees Post 6-4 Triumph

By MIKE RATHET

Report No. 2 is in on Mickey Mantle, whose fate apparently hinges on tape.

Last Thursday, Mantle's case history had an expenditure for tape—to bandage his legs. Sunday, Mantle's case history had an expenditure for tape—to measure his homers.

Mantle, the New York Yankees' $100,000-a-year slugger with the dime store legs, raised his batting average to .318 Sunday by lifting two long drives over the fences at Tampa, Fla., in a 6-4 exhibition baseball victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

The homers were the first of the spring training grind for Mantle, who had been forced into a four-day layoff by his ailing legs. He had complained about his left knee-operated on during the winter for torn cartilage.

"I was running real good when I came down here, but I haven't been running good the last couple of days," Mantle said when he issued Report No. 1 Thursday.

He concentrated on trotting against the Reds. Both homers were hit with Mantle batting right-handed against southpaw Joe Nuxhall, the first with a man on in the first inning traveling 350 feet and the second in the fifth with the bases empty rocketing 430 feet.

Report No. 2, however, still left doubts about the condition of Mantle's taped legs. In the field, he ran without any indication of lameness, but he let one hit fall in front of him instead of charging it in the Mantle manner.

While the American League champion Yankees were getting a boost from their No. 1 product, Sandy Koufax of the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers turned in his sharpest pitching Minnesota.

Koufax became the first pitcher to go all the way this spring as he limited the Twins to five hits. Jimmie Hall ruined Koufax' effort with a two-run homer in the fourth and the Twins added an unearned run in the fifth. Joining Hall as the day's hitting stars were Detroit rookie Willie Horton, Julio Gotay of Pittsburgh, Tim Lincecum of the New York Mets and Tony Conigliaro, a rookie with the Boston Red Sox who may be compiling one of the oddest hitting records ever produced.

Horton connected for a pinch-hit homer in the ninth inning of the Tigers' 2-1 triumph over the Chicago White Sox in the opener of a doubleheader, then homered in the third inning of Detroit's 3-0 nightcap victory. Horton now has five homers.

Gotay collected two homers and two singles for five runs batted in as the Pirates walloped Philadelphia 13-4 while Lincecum broke a hitless string that had extended to 16 at-bats by slamming a homer, double and single in the Mets' 8-3 beating of Washington.

Conigliaro led the Red Sox to a 6-4, 13-inning victory over the Los Angeles Angels with a homer, two triples and a double. The 19-year-old outfielder now has collected 15 hits—13 for extra bases. His batting average is .288; his slugging average .750.

In other games, St. Louis edged Milwaukee 6-5 in 11 innings, Kansas City defeated Houston 2-1, the Chicago Cubs outslugged San Francisco 11-7, Baltimore nipped the Colts' B team 2-1 and Cleveland downed the Angels' B squad 7-6.

CincyInShowdown With Celtics Next

By The Associated Press
"I think Boston will take it." Cincinnati had just knocked his club out of the National Basketball Association playoffs but Philadelphia 76ers Coach Dolph Schayes saw nothing but trouble ahead for the Royals.

West All-Stars Edge East 79-78

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Folks from the plains of Kansas should be mighty proud of Dave Stallworth of Wichita and Willie Murrell of Kansas State.

Stallworth, a 6-foot-7 All-America, and Murrell, a 6-6 Kansas State star, teamed up to lead the West to a 79-78 victory over the East in the East-West College All-Star basketball game.

Murrell was named the game's Most Valuable Player, but it was Stallworth's clutch efforts in the last 1:45 of play that led the West to victory Saturday. The vote for MVP honors was taken at halftime, thus Stallworth's brilliant effort was not taken into consideration.

With 1:54 to play, the East tied the game 75-75 on a 10-foot jumper by Jeff Mullins of Duke. The West missed its next shot and the East had a chance to move out in front, but Stallworth stole the ball, drove in toward the basket, was fouled and hit two free throws to make it 77-75.

With 1:35 to go, Ron Bonham of Cincinnati hit a free throw to cut the margin to one. The West again missed its shot and the East had another chance to go ahead with about a minute to go.

The East worked the ball carefully for the good shot. Wally Jones of Villanova thought he had it and attempted to shoot, but Stallworth just stretched hands and raced down the court for a goal to make it 79-76 with just 43 seconds to go. The only scoring the East could do in the remainder of the contest was two free throws by John Thompson of Providence to cut the lead to 79-78 with 28 seconds to go.

Cincinnati earned a shot at the formidable Celtics by outgunning Philadelphia 130-124 Sunday night in the decisive game of a best-of-five series. But Lucas' aching back may cripple the Royals' board game when they open a best-of-seven Eastern Division final set Tuesday in Boston.

The pairings for the Western Division finals will be determined tonight when St. Louis and Los Angeles tangle in the last of their five-game series. The survivor plays San Francisco.

Lucas was sub-par in the Philadelphia series, although the rookie star pulled down 11 rebounds and scored 15 points Sunday. He reinjured his back a week ago and has been playing part-time since.

"I'm getting a little better," he said after the game. "I still can't jump as well as I should. But in a couple of days I hope to be ready." Cincy Coach Jack McMahon, otherwise happy after the Royals streaked by Philadelphia on the strength of deadly second-half shooting, hopes so too.

The Royals hit on seven of their first eight shots in the second half and turned a 59-59 deadlock into a 74-61 bulge. Robertson didn't miss on nine shots in the last 24 minutes.

John Kerr led Philadelphia with 31 points. Los Angeles came from 10 points down in the second half to whip St. Louis 97-88 Saturday and even the Western series at two victories apiece.

Good Evening WOULD YOU LIKE $100.00 tomorrow
Well... a special $100.00 "in a jiffy" service is being offered to residents of this vicinity. Our company feels that there is a need for this type of assistance. Those needing $25.00 to $100.00 cash to tide them over until next pay day simply come in and sign a note for the amount. Get the cash at once. If you need more, that can be arranged... perhaps we can reduce your present payments. All worthy persons are invited.

Annual Home Show To Open Thursday

Among the exhibitors for the 10th annual Home Show to be held Thursday through Sunday at the Myers building at the corner of E. Pershing St. and S. Lundy Ave. are:

Lions Club which is sponsoring a booth for the Youngstown Society for the Blind.

Senior Citizens of Salem, who will have an exhibit of craft-ware which members have made.

The Salem Memorial Group which will display several designs for the new monument honoring veterans to be placed on the Village Green.

Little League baseball mother's club which will have a bake sale booth.

Space for the Lions Club, Senior Citizens, Salem Memorial Group and the Mothers club is given free.

The home show is sponsored by the American Legion post.

According to Wade Loop, gen-al chairman, over 10,000 people are expected for this year's event.

Although over 70 per cent of the exhibit space is taken, Loop urges all persons wishing to enter a display to get in touch with him as soon as possible.

A variety of new home products and equipment will be displayed. Featured will be household appliances, building materials, floor coverings, lawn and garden tools, home decorations, television and hi-fi equipment.

First Act of Congress was a bill regulating time and manner of administering oaths of office required by the Constitution.
